

Courses with Medical Requirements

Table 1 shows the list of courses with colour vision and hearing requirements. Students with colour vision deficiency may have to undergo a test to determine their suitability for admission to the courses.

Note: X denotes not eligible for the course.

Course / Medical Conditions	Totally Colour Blind	Partially Colour Blind	Hearing Disability	Severe Vision Deficiency
Aerospace Engineering	X	X	X	X
Biomedical Engineering Common Engineering Programme Electronic & Computer Engineering	X	May be considered for admissions, provided applicants pass an in-house colour vision test.		X
Common ICT Programme Cybersecurity & Digital Forensics Design Financial Informatics Information Technology Optometry				X
Film, Sound & Video Hotel & Leisure Facilities Management Marine & Offshore Technology Mechanical Engineering			X	X

Automation & Mechatronic Systems Electrical Engineering Engineering Science Immersive Media Media Post-Production	X	May be considered for admissions, provided applicants pass an in-house colour vision test.	X	X
Pharmaceutical Science	X	X

Table 2 shows the list of medical conditions that may lead to non-acceptance into the following courses.

- Diploma in Early Childhood Development & Education ^
- Diploma in Nursing ^
- Diploma in Tamil Studies with Early Education ^

Acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS)	Physical dependence upon mobility equipment	Uncontrolled diabetes
Active tuberculosis	Profound deafness	Uncontrolled epilepsy
Legal Blindness	Psychiatric condition	Uncontrolled hypertension
Mobility restricted	Uncontrolled asthma	