

Connect with your Students: A Workshop on Communication Skills for Effective Teaching

Course Outline

- Overview on the communication process
- Identify developmental needs of lower and upper primary children
- Understanding how the developmental stages and needs affect young children's learning and behaviour
Understanding what is verbal and non-verbal cues
- Techniques and practices to use these cues effectively
- Communication strategies and techniques for managing a group of children
- Understanding one's own preferred communication style and how it affects communication with children
- Personalising your own communication strategies with the child