CET ACADEMY

The CET Academy drives Ngee Ann Polytechnic's (NP) continuing education programmes in support of the nation's SkillsFuture Initiative. SkillsFuture aims to provide Singaporeans with the opportunities to develop their fullest potential throughout life, regardless of their starting points. The Academy's vision is to provide opportunities for both, early career individuals and mid-career professionals to advance their career based on skills mastery through a slew of continuing education and training programmes.

Since 1985, the CET Academy has been providing a wide spectrum of high quality and affordable training programmes that cater to working adults in varied sectors of our economy. The Academy provides training to more than 6,000 working adults each year. Riding on this track record, NP has established itself as one of Singapore's key training providers in the arena of continuing education.

COURSES OFFERED

The CET Academy reinforces NP's commitment to support the nation's SkillsFuture initiative to develop an integrated, high-quality system of continuing education and training system. It aims to respond to constantly evolving industry needs, promote employer recognition and career development based on skills and mastery, and foster a culture that supports and celebrates lifelong learning.

The Academy spearheads NP's effort by offering:

- SkillsFuture Earn and Learn Programmes
- Enhanced Post-Diploma Certificate Courses
- Part-Time Diploma Courses
- Specialist Diplomas, Advanced Diplomas and Diploma (Conversion) Courses
- Skills-Based Modular Courses
- Short Courses, Customised Courses and Seminars
- Workforce Skills Qualifications (WSQ) Courses

More details of these programmes can be found on www.np.edu.sg/CET

The CET Academy offers courses and programmes spanning the fields of Business, Finance & Accounting, Engineering, Health & Life Sciences, Humanities & Early Childhood Education, Infocomm Technology, Language, Life Skills and Media & Arts.

The Academy also designs customised courses to help companies enhance the life skills and management acumen of their staff. This helps improve staff productivity in line with companies' organisational goals and strategies.

A combination of delivery modes, such as lectures, workshops, seminars, on-the-job training, are used to facilitate learning. Some modules are even delivered online so students can engage in virtual learning.

ADMISSION & APPLICATION

Admission requirements vary, depending on the type of courses selected. The course calendar and details are updated regularly on our website and selected print media. Interested participants may log on to www.np.edu.sg/cet for course information and to submit online applications.

FACILITIES & STAFF

CET Academy conducts most of its training at NP's teaching hub that houses 33 classrooms.

Trainers for our part-time courses are experienced and highly-qualified lecturers from both the polytechnic and the industry. Our dedicated lecturers are committed to help develop skills and competencies needed to make a difference in your organisation.

COLLABORATIONS

NP has developed strong partnerships with trade associations, professional bodies, self-help groups and government agencies to ensure that the courses offered are relevant to industries and in tandem with the latest economic and technological trends.

The CET Academy's courses are usually developed in consultation with relevant partners through focus group discussions. This has resulted in the initiation of a number of joint programmes that cater for the needs of specific industry sectors.

VENUE & TIME

Classes are normally conducted in the evenings in NP. For customised courses, training can be conducted on the company's premises.
