UOB and Incubatees Gathering

Our commitment to building and lifting the current AGILE startup community involves opening new doors and opportunities for them to relevant and potential industry partners.

On the 8th of February, the team at UOBFinlab shared on potential avenues of collaboration and incubatees in AGILE conducted an informal sharing and pitch session of their businesses to members of UOBFinlab.

The startup founders also shared on how they are able to contribute, and potentially explore future collaborations with the bank. Smoothworks, a RoboCFO provider will be able to bridge the gap between banks and their current pool of clients in small and medium-sized enterprises.
